COMES NOW Ronald G. Brown, the trustee in the above entitled case, through his undersigned attorney, and submits this reply to the responses to the Trustee's Motion for Order Confirming That Real Property is Property of the Estate (ECF Docket No. 514, hereinafter the, "Motion") which were filed by Peter Zieve [ECF Docket No. 524] and Stephen J. LeBlanc [ECF Docket No. 525]. The responses of Messrs. Zieve and LeBlanc are hereinafter called, respectively, the Zieve Response and the LeBlanc Response.

The Zieve Response Reflects a Misunderstanding Regarding the Status of The Montcrest Property and the Objection Therein Should Be Denied

In the Zieve Response, Mr. Zieve wrongly asserts that the Montcrest Property is "held in trust, FBO the Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund, by Terrington Davies Capital Management" and indicates that the property cannot be property of the bankruptcy estate presumably because he believes that the Debtor did not have a personal ownership interest therein. The Debtor personally purchased the Montcrest Property in his name and subsequent thereto, through a series of transfers among himself, Ptarmigan Real Estate Fund ("Ptarmigan") and Terrington Davies Capital Management, LLC ("TDC") and other entities,

1 transferred title to TDC as "Trustee for 868 Montcrest 2010 Family Trust." The Trustee has a pending
2 adversary proceeding (No. 11-01954) against various defendants including Stephen J. LeBlanc,
3 Ptarmigan, TDC and the aforementioned Family Trust for avoidance of the transfers of the Montcrest
4 Property including the Debtor's unauthorized post-bankruptcy attempt to encumber the property. See,
5 Second Amended Complaint (Adv. Docket No. 57). As set forth in the Motion (pages 3-4), the Court 6 has already entered findings of fact/conclusions of law and default judgments avoiding several of the 7 transfers and quieted title to the Montcrest Property in regard thereto in the Trustee. Contrary to what 8 Mr. Zieve alleges the Trustee has not requested or sought a "seizure" of the Montcrest Property. The 9 Trustee, rather, through his statutory powers under the Bankruptcy Code has avoided the Debtor's 10 improper transfers of the property. Thus the Montcrest Property does not belong to the Debtor's various 11 entities and as such, the analysis of Mr. Zieve contained in the Zieve Response is factually and legally 12 incorrect. Thus there is no reasonable or legally cognizable basis alleged by Mr. Zieve for denying that 13 the Montcrest Property is property of the bankruptcy estate. Therefore, the objection contained in the 14 Zieve Response should be denied.

17                   The Objection Contained in the LeBlanc Response is Not Applicable
18                   to the Montcrest Property or the Estate and Should Be Denied

19                   Mr. LeBlanc, which according to the LeBlanc Response is a lawyer, does not appear to posit any 20 factual or legal grounds for denying the Motion. As far as the undersigned can ascertain, the LeBlanc 21 Response sets forth little or no material facts related to the Montcrest Property or its legal status. The 22 majority of the LeBlanc Response appears to relate to his perceptions and beliefs regarding the status
23 of what he calls the Tanager Fund, other real property that he wrongly believes was property of TDC or 24 any other alleged investment entities or entities created by the Debtor. The LeBlanc Response dwells 25 upon issues and assertions that do not appear to be reasonably connected with any determination of the

1 status of the Montcrest Property. Therefore, the objection contained in the LeBlanc Response should be 2 denied.

3 Conclusion

4 The objections contained in the Zieve Response and the LeBlanc Response, which are without 5 merit, must be denied and the Motion should be granted.
